

The Care of All We Seek or See

KINGSFOLD
CMD

Andrew Pratt

Traditional English melody

Arr: John R. Kleinheksel Sr.

1. The care of all we seek or see was put in - to our hands, but
2. With - in a world of tooth and claw, com - pet - ing for a place, we
3. We thought we were in - vin - ci - ble - but now we un - der - stand, - a -
4. At last it seems we need to pause, to un - der - stand our plight, to

5
through our hu - man ar - ro - gance we thought we ruled all lands. There thought that we could dom - i - nate: a might - y, hu - man race. But vi - rus that we can - not see could mark our fi - nal stand. 'Pride own our vul - ner'a - bil - i - ty, to walk in - to the light: Great was no thing be - yond our grasp, nor task be - yond our means, but shocked, we should have re - cog - nized our place with - in a plan, we comes be - fore a fall', they say, and we were ve - ry proud, but God, how - ev - er we be - lieve, we plead, we cry, we call, come lim - its hold us, keep us back, deep - root - ed in our genes.

9

13
should have used our in - tel - lect - to prove our fi - nite span.
now we rue the day we spoke, to state our case out loud.
hold us, keep us, lift us up, God catch us as we fall.

(g# last verse)